

Samia, with almost 50 years of experience, specialized in chemical products for leather finishing.

To secure a successful future and strengthen our leadership, we focus on continuous improvement and development of our people, our products, our services and our processes.

